Hello Michael Wyn,

Family never forget what you have done for us. Ba, always said to me that you have been helping a lot and because of you that our family is here in the U.S. Ba, is never take any credits for the facts that he worked hard with you, and the credits for what we have now (eventhought that I have none).....; but all thanks to you and Ba.

Also, back in that day and you made more than what I am making now.....

Subject: A walk down memory lane...

Greetings,

I've come across old document which brought back bitter-sweet memories..

1. Dad worked as an accountant for "Poinsard & Veyret", a large French company doing business in the Far East and Africa
2. Dad's letter of recommendation from Quinton Budlong
3. A Certificate of Employment from "Air America, Inc."
4. His last paycheck from "Air America"
5. Sample of payments I helped sending to Vietnam monthly [back then I was bringing home about $1,800/month] to rescue our sister's family.

M.
